YOU'VE GOT QUESTIONS.

I'VE GOT ANSWERS!

How many hours will I need?

Think about what photos are most important to you. Do you want getting ready photos? Are you doing a first look or first touch? Do you want dancing photos? Do you want to do portraits at sunset? Are you doing a special send off? Maybe you only have your venue for a certain amount of time and are going to head to a second location for an after party. When we have our consultation we can talk about all of this and figure out which package is best.

How many hours can I book you for?

To ensure that every moment of your special day is captured, my photography packages start at a minimum of six hours. Six hours will cover the ceremony and dances. However, if you want additional photos such as getting ready shots, detail shots, and reception photos, then I recommend the eight-hour package, with the option of adding an extra hour or two to capture all the fun and excitement beyond the reception.

Can we change packages after the contract has been signed?

No problem! We can always upgrade the package with more hours or add a second photographer. Your final payment will reflect the additional costs. You cannot downgrade your package.

Do I need a second photographer?

Maybe! Second photographers are able to photograph different angles, separate locations and assist with logistics of wedding day photography. If you are wanting a lot of candid photos of guests, if your venue is spread out, or you want getting ready photos at two different locations you'll probably need a second photographer. If you are having a small wedding or eloping, or maybe it's just not in your budget, one photographer is fine!

When will I receive my gallery?

Your gallery will be delivered within 4 to 6 weeks of your wedding date. I'll send you sneak peeks within 48 hours!

What are your travel fees?

If you are getting married within 100 miles of the Portland Metro Area I do not charge a travel fee. Anything outside of that I do charge a fee based on miles and if I need accommodations for the night.
